

2019 ASBPA National Coastal Conference Poster Session

Posters accepted to date (submitted with initial deadline of May 4, 2019). Poster abstracts are still being accepted at www.asbpa.org/conferences until Sept. 13, 2019.

“The Spatiotemporal Evolution of the Mid to Lower Shoreface, Grand Strand region, SC” by Christina Boyce, Coastal Carolina University

“Tools and Technology of the USACE National Regional Sediment Management Program” by Brandon Boyd, US Army Engineer Research and Development Center

“Drivers of nutrient and sediment loading vary in coastal sub-watersheds” by Andrew Brainard, Ramboll

“Reconstructing a Centennial-scale History of Extreme Floods using Oxbow Lake Sediments of the Pee Dee River, SC” by Nicholas Conway, Coastal Carolina University

“Measuring Beach Replenishment's Effects on Aquatic Spinal Injuries: An Analysis of Six Rounds of Replenishment at a High Volume Coastal Resort” by Jamie Falcon, United States Coast Guard Academy

“Engineering Application of the Beach-fx Model for Carolina Beach in New Hanover County, North Carolina” by Alison Grzegorzewski, US Army Corps of Engineers

“Morphology Change Modeling for Crab Bank, South Carolina Using the Coastal Modeling System (CMS)” by Alison Grzegorzewski, US Army Corps of Engineers

“Restoration of Shallow Water Habitat in Hudson River Estuary - Rattlesnake Island Hydrodynamic and Sediment Transport Study” by Ahintha Kandamby, OBG Part of Ramboll

“Hurricane-induced extreme flood unprecedented over the past 4000 years in the Waccamaw River basin, South Carolina” by Zhixiong Shen, Coastal Carolina University

“Coastal Communities Coping with Climate Change: the Deal Island Community Shoreline Restoration and Enhancement Project” by Rebecca Swerida, Maryland Department of Natural Resources- CBNERR

“Alongshore Spatial Scales of Hypoxia in Long Bay, SC: 2012-2017” by Sarah Wessinger, Coastal Carolina University